Club Presidents

The Illinois Federation of Republican Women's Officer Nominating Committee is seeking outstanding leadership candidates for nomination to seven officer positions during the 2020 - 2021 term. You are a key contributor to the success in this search.

The enclosed application for nomination document spells out the nomination procedure. The Committee is looking for women who are experienced, successful leaders. To be eligible, the nominee must be a 2019 member of a local 2019 certified club. Nominees for President must have served on the IFRW Board for at least one year.

The Committee is seeking IFRW members who are concerned about Illinois and our great nation; and who want to make a difference in the direction the country is headed. We hope you will identify and strongly urge women who are proven leaders to send an application for nomination.

First, read the application for nomination. Then, start looking for qualified leadership. Please distribute the application form to your clubs contact list. Make even make a phone call or two. Finding successful leadership depends on you. You, too, are encouraged to send an application if you have the qualities for IFRW leadership!

We look forward to hearing from you and all applicant who might potentially lead the IFRW in the next two years.

Thanks for YOUR leadership in IFRW!

On behalf of the Nominating Committee: Shelly Hranka, Patti Howard, Mary Thurman, Susan Grant, MaryAnn Bicknell, Linda Yoakum and Caritina Mayer.
